Historical language advisory

Certain parts of the Library and Archives Canada (LAC) collection contain historical language and content that some may consider offensive, for example, language used to refer to racial, ethnic and cultural groups. Items in the collection, their content and their descriptions reflect the time period when they were created and the view of their creator. The items retain their original descriptions to ensure that attitudes and viewpoints are not erased from the historical record. LAC provides additional descriptive information to give background on the records. This is an ongoing process. For more information, please visit LAC's Historical language advisory page.

Mise en garde – terminologie historique

Certaines parties de la collection de Bibliothèque et Archives Canada (BAC) renferment de la terminologie et des contenus à caractère historique que certains pourraient considérer comme offensants, notamment au chapitre du langage utilisé pour désigner des groupes raciaux, ethniques et culturels. Les éléments qui composent la collection, leurs contenus et leurs descriptions sont le reflet des époques au cours desquelles ils ont été créés et des points de vue de leurs créateurs. Les descriptions d'origine sont conservées afin que ces attitudes et perspectives ne soient pas supprimées des sources historiques. BAC fournit toutefois des renseignements descriptifs supplémentaires dans le but de donner davantage de contexte aux documents, le tout dans le cadre d'un processus évolutif. Pour en savoir plus, visitez la page Mise en garde – terminologie historique de BAC.

Dear Sir;-

I resigned the position of teacher at Red Pheasant near Battleford on July I7 giving the required month's notice, andleft there on August I7th. to come here.

As the teacher's salary is paid during the vacation months ,minus the bonus , I expected to receive the salary for July and the first two weeks of August, as owing to the salary being paid for the vacation , I had to remain at the above place during that period; I wrote the Agent at Battleford last October, and received no answer.

The salary was $50 per month plus bonus , and for the vacation, $50 minus the bonus , thus I feel I am entitled to $75, would you kindly let me know your opinion in the matter and whether you consider that I am entitled to the salary.

Yours faithfully
Rev. E. Beck

REMARKS:—

Mr. E. V. Bird engaged as teacher at salary of $600.00 per an. and began duties September 1, 1920. During the school year 1920-21 the following payments were made to him:-

As Mr. Bird taught the required number of days during the academic years 1920-21, he was entitled to receive the full yearly salary of $600.00 for that year. As only $513.00 was paid to him, the above balance is, therefore, due.

Ottawa, April 1, 1924.

Reverend Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 26th ultimo, in which you claim salary as teacher of the Red Pheasant Indian Day School for the period July 1st to August 17, 1923.

In reply I would point out that, in the payment of the salaries of teachers in Indian day schools, the summer holidays are not taken into account and, therefore, no salary is paid for them.

The academic year begins September 1st and ends June 30th, and, while you were in charge of the Red Pheasant school, your salary was paid quarterly. We find, however, on reviewing the payments made to you from the date you began duties, namely, September 1, 1920, to June 30, 1923, there is a balance of salary due you for the academic year 1920-21 amounting to $87.00. To explain this fully to you, the following statement shows the payments made to you during three academic years:-

ACADEMIC YEAR 1920-21.

September	qr.	1920	$63.00
December	"	1920	150.00
March	"	1921	150.00
June	"	1921	150.00

ACADEMIC YEAR 1921-22.

September	qr.	1921	$150.00
December	"	1921	150.00
March	"	1922	150.00
June	"	1922	150.00

ACADEMIC YEAR 1922-23.

September	qr.	1922	$150.00
December	"	1922	150.00
March	"	1923	150.00
June	"	1923	150.00
Total		.....	$1713.00

The total amount you should have received for the three academic years was $1800.00 and, as shown by the above, you only received $1713.00. There is, therefore, a balance due you of $87.00, a cheque for which amount will be forwarded under separate cover.

Your obedient servant,

Russell T. Ferrier,

Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 22nd ultimo, with reference to the amount paid you for the period you taught the Red Pheasant Indian Day School during the quarter ended June 30th, last.

In reply I beg to say that the salaries of teachers in Indian day schools is paid on a basis of ten teaching months in the school year. Your salary is at the rate of $800.00 a year, or, $80.00 a month and, as you taught a month and a half during the June quarter you were paid $120.00 salary. From this the Department deducted the advance of $50.00, leaving a balance due you of $70.00.

Bonus to teachers of Indian day schools is paid at the rate of $150.00 for ten teaching months, or, $15.00 a month and you were, therefore, allowed bonus for the same period for which the salary was paid, namely, one and a half months, and a cheque for $22.50 was sent you. As your salary was paid on the same basis as the salaries of the other teachers in Indian day schools, there is, therefore, no balance due you.

Sir:

I have your letter of the 14th instant, in which you recommend that the Red Pheasant Indian Day School be kept open during the months of July and August, next, and that the annual summer holidays be taken in September and October, and stating your reasons for making this change.

In reply I beg to say that, if you and the teacher are satisfied that there would be a good attendance during the two summer months mentioned, the Department would have no objection to giving this arrangement a trial during the coming summer. We have noted that the average attendance has been slightly lower during the quarter ended September 30th than for the other quarters. The teacher and yourself are in the best position to decide as to the advantage to be gained in the change in the usual annual holiday period, and this matter will be left in your hands.

I shall be pleased if you will advise the Department at a later date as to whether the school will be conducted during the two months mentioned and the annual holidays taken during September and October, next.

Sir:

I have your letter of the 28th ultimo, informing the Department that Miss Ruth W. Johnston, who holds a second class teacher's certificate, has been engaged as temporary teacher to assist Mrs. Roberts in the work at the Red Pheasant Indian Day School until such time as Mr. Roberts is able to resume duties.

In reply I beg to say that the Department will approve of the temporary appointment of Miss Johnston. As stated in previous correspondence, the salary allowed her as substitute teacher will be at the rate of $80 per teaching month. We note that she began duties on the 21st ultimo.

In connection with the request made by Mrs. Roberts, which was referred to in official letter to you of the 23rd ultimo, relative to the payment of salary to Mr. Roberts during the months of July and August to reimburse him for expenses occasioned by his illness, I beg to say that we can allow him payment for one month's salary only during the quarter ended September 30th, last. When payments of the salaries due for that quarter are being made, a cheque to the amount of $95 will be forwarded in favour of Mr. Roberts.

A return should be prepared by Miss Johnston, showing the days she taught and the attendance between the 21st of September and the end of the same month. When this is received, payment of the salary due her will also be made.

I may add that it is presumed the Church authorities concur in the appointment of Miss Johnston.

Sir:

I have your letter of the 7th instant, relative to the application of Mr. Henry Reynolds, teacher of the Red Pheasant Indian Day School, for one week's leave of absence in June, next, in order that he can attend the Anglican Synod at Prince Albert.

The Department approves of leave of absence being granted Mr. Reynolds to attend the Synod, and your action in granting him permission to make up for this time by teaching during the Easter holidays is approved.

Your obedient servant,
